

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Hotel Benalmadena Palace 4 * aware of the need for the development of its activity, is carried out with the appropriate respect for the Environment, commits to compliance with the following environmental principles:

1st Rationalize and make good use of natural resources, to reduce the impact environmental, minimizing the consumption of resources, promoting efficiency and saving energy in their facilities.

2nd Continually improve and prevent pollution, implementing the necessary measures to reduce the environmental effects and preventing possible accidents with incidence environmental.

3rd Continually update the environmental program, establishing the objectives and goals of our environmental management system.

4th Continuously adjust compliance with environmental legislation and regulations applicable, as well as other requirements that the company subscribes.

5th Promote environmental training and awareness of the human team that makes up the company as well as the clients and collaborators in the protection of the Environment, providing information on all the actions that are carried out in our company.

Our policy has been communicated to all our team and is available to the public, customers and our collaborators.

